

Gospel Portraits Slated by Baptists

Paul Gerrard Jackson will be the guest speaker at the morning worship service at 11 a. m. in the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane.

Commencing Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. and each succeeding evening through the 25th at the same hour, Jackson, Bible lecturer and impersonator, will present his program of Gospel Life Portraits entitled "Men who Met the Master."

At each service Rev. Jackson selects a Biblical or historical character, and by his powers of impersonation, makes this character "come to life." On successive evenings, he appears as a blind beggar healed by Christ, the scribe who scorned Christ, the Pharisee who sought Christ, the governor who judged Christ, the Apostle who doubted Christ and as the Disciple beloved of Christ. Each impersonation is introduced or followed by a brief Bible Message, keyed to the character.

Given in Costume
Jackson's Gospel life portraits are given in full costume, with interpretive lighting-effects and music. The special lighting and audio-electronic equipment is operated by his wife who assists her husband as a technician.

An ordained minister of the Gospel, Rev. Jackson was formerly a professional actor. He specialized in the classical

'Atonement' Named Topic This Sunday

The atonement of redemption from sin and of establishing man's native at-one-ment with the Father, God, is the subject matter of the Lesson-Sermon, "Doctrine of Atonement," in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

"Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God; whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life, and Love," says Mary Baker Eddy in a passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," which will be read during the sermon. It contemplates, "Jesus of Nazareth taught, and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe Him endless homage" (p. 18).

These words of Christ Jesus as recorded by the beloved disciple, John are a part of the sermon. "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me... My Father, which gave them Me, is greater than all, and no man is able to pluck them out of My Father's hand" (10:27, 29).

"Turn us again, O Lord God of Hosts, cause Thy face to shine, and we shall be saved" are the words of the Psalmist (80:19) used as the Golden Text.
